Weekly Activity Report
Week Ending: April 17, 2015

- Sodexo Dining Events - The NMSU American Indian Science and Engineering Society partnered with Taos Restaurant to celebrate American Indian Week with two cultural dinners. The Saudi Students Club of New Mexico worked with Taos staff to present a “Taste of Saudi Arabia” lunch. The Ecuadorian Go Teachers provided information, dance, and music while Taos chefs provided authentic Ecuadorian cuisine. Purple food and décor were featured all last week in Taos, and a purple dinner was served on April 15th to promote the local Relay for Life event.
- Flavours Catering - served a presidential donor dinner on Wed, 4/15 and the NMSU Baseball donor reception on Fri, 4/17 at Presley Askew Baseball Field.
- Taos Restaurant - University Communications took many beautiful photos of the restaurant interior and food to be displayed in the upcoming revised New Mexico State Viewbook.
- KidFit Event - NMSU and Las Cruces families participated in Sodexo’s free “Kids in the Kitchen” educational activity as part of NM State Wellness Fair and Junior League KidFit event. Participants in “Kids in the Kitchen” made free healthy yogurt parfaits and learned about healthy eating.
- Clothing Swap - The Second Annual Corbett Center Clothing Swap was held in Corbett Center to assist students in obtaining interview-appropriate clothing for upcoming job interviews. Clothes are donated by campus and community members, and are given to students at no cost.
- Hawaiian Buffet - Guests at the 3rd Floor Bistro at the Danny Villanueva Victory Club took a mini-vacation during lunch on Wed, 4/15. The chefs, including Chef Eddie Tautolo, a Samoan native, put together a fantastic menu featuring grilled chicken marinated with shoyu, kalua pork, and coconut haupia (sweet Polynesian custard dessert).
