A&F Weekly Report – Week Ending 7/17/2015

- 4-H Annual Conference – 400 members and sponsors from around the state had a week filled with activity in the Corbett Center Student Union. Conference Services also coordinated the annual NM Leadership Institute Summer Academy and the USA High Performance Volleyball Summer Camp.
- Parking Lot Maintenance- Parking lot maintenance and repair projects began this week starting with re-surfacing of Lot 82 (East Greek Housing on south campus).
- Junior Golf camp- Summer Junior Golf Camp continues as part of the golf course programming for two weeks and are open to any junior below the age of 18. To date, all of the camps have been filled and juniors have received a very good introduction to the game of golf.
- Aggie Welcome and Orientation- ID Card Services participated in the Aggie Welcome and Orientation events on main campus and at Dona Ana East Mesa. Progress continues in the ID card services area as the percentage of students submitting photos online is steadily increasing, improving the efficiency of issuing ID cards at AWO events.
- USGA Amateur Championship - 39 of the best amateur golfers in the area competed at the NMSU Golf Course for a spot in this prestigious event. Winning the qualifying tournament was Kenneth Fadke, a member of the NMSU Men's Golf Team.
