

New Mexico State University
Administration and Finance
A&F Weekly Report – Week Ending 8/21/2015

- Move-In Day - Housing & Residential Life had a very successful move-in day on Sunday. Over 1500 students moved on campus with help from their families and hundreds of University volunteers. The day was capped off with a dinner served by Sodexo Campus Dining for students and their families in the Taos Restaurant in Corbett Center, followed by a welcome from President Carruthers on the outdoor stage.

- FY15' Parking Lot Renovations - Right on schedule and just in time for the student's return, upgrades to seal and stripe Parking Lots #03, #72, #74, #75 and #82 were completed. Pictured to the left are Parking Lots #3 and #75.

- Scavenger Hunt – Barnes & Noble at NMSU was a stop in the Residence Life Scavenger Hunt on Monday (8/17) where students learned the Aggie Fight song. Bookstore staff was present on the International Mall with an information table to answer questions about textbooks. The store has also extended their store hours for the students through August 28th: Monday-Friday from 7:30am to 8:00 pm.
- Student VIP Block Party – As part of the Crimson Kick-Off, Barnes & Noble with the assistance of Auxiliary Services, hosted over 500 students gathered Monday evening in the parking lot behind the bookstore for dancing, games, and music. Food was served by Sodexo Dining, who also hosted cereal and cake eating contests with the winners taking home $100 gift cards!
- Returning Students - NMSU Golf Course is once again a very busy place selling semester passes to PGA Golf Management students, the arrival of the NMSU Men's and Women's Golf Teams, the start-up of leagues, and preparing for external fundraising events. The Annual Cowboys for Cancer Golf Tournament is scheduled for August 28th.

