

Fire Arson Origin and Cause Investigation Certification.

Fire Captain John Guerin attended the Fire Arson Origin and Cause Investigator class held at the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland from July 11-22, 2016. The course is designed to meet or exceed the applicable sections of NFPA 1033, Standard for Professional Qualifications for Fire Investigator. NMSU Fire Department now has two certified investigators to identify the origin and cause of a fire, conduct a technically and legally sound investigation, and pursue the case through the judicial system. Fire Captain Kellen Tarkington is the other certified investigator.

Sodexo Dining Services

- Taos Restaurant has begun service for the NMSU football, soccer and volleyball teams as they begin training for the new seasons. Menus are designed to meet training requirements of student athletes.
- Remodeling to refresh Chick-fil-A in Corbett Center has begun. The menu offerings will soon include spicy chicken.
- Coming soon, Aggies Grill in Gerald Thomas Hall will offer a new menu for the NMSU community this fall.

NMSU firefighters logged 3,944 training hours in calendar year 2015!

Office of Sustainability and NMSU Activity Center working together on Aggie Bike Expo

Kenny Coppedge and Curtis Brown, two staff members from Activity Center Outdoor Recreation, and joni newcomer, sustainability manager, met with a local bicycle advocacy group, Velo Cycle, to begin planning the Aggie Bike Expo at the Activity Center on the front lawn on September 1st. Besides having fun and tuning up bikes for the fall semester, we hope to share safety information for all our bicyclists and pedestrians on campus. We'll have bike maps, free safety inspection, free slime for bike tubes, safety tips, a proposed bike swap, drawing for a free bike, and registration forms to register your bike with the Police Department.
