

Pro-Shop Introduces

We are excited to announce that as of June 16th, James Vanderheyden will be the Pro Shop Assistant. James is a graduate of the NMSU PGA Program, and soon to be a member of the PGA of America.

Junior Golf Camp

The Golf Course is in full swing with Summer Junior Golf Camps. The PGA Junior League Team won its first match against Sonoma Ranch Golf Course and look forward to the next match against Red Hawk Country Club and Deming Country Club on Sunday, June 12th. To register for summer activities, go to <http://golf.nmsu.edu/>.

Players Grill

The Players Grill Restaurant will continue to offer specials throughout the summer, most notably Taco Thursday. Look for future information regarding live music, new brunch, kids and healthier choices menus at <http://golf.nmsu.edu/grill/>.

Golf Course Parking

The Parking lot project is almost complete and looks great. We will be working on the clean up of the desert areas, bunker renovation, and thinning out some of the overgrown yuccas throughout the course.

Aggie Welcome & Orientation

Sodexo participated in the Aggie Welcome & Orientation events on June 6th, 7th and 11th. The Sodexo team provided information on campus dining, and welcomed incoming Aggies and their families.

Mike's Magnificent Meals

Taos Restaurant has started a series of offers called Mike's Magnificent Meals. Mike Guerra is a Sodexo supervisor in charge of the meal series. On Thursday, June 9th, lunch featured ribeye steaks with fresh roasted green chile, a full baked potato bar, roasted vegetables and assorted freshly baked pies with ice cream.

Housing & Residential Life

Housing & Residential Life housed 50 students in Garcia Hall during the Aggie Welcome and Orientation on June 6th and 7th. Tours of the facilities were provided to students and their families. Currently, there are six additional conference groups on campus with 210 guests staying in Housing.

Parking & Transportation

Cole Village parking lots H1, H2, H4 and H5 have been paved and striped. Work will continue in remaining Cole Village lots.
