

Snooze Saloon

The new Snooze Saloon, in partnership with ASNMSU and Corbett Center, is now open. The Snooze Saloon is a place for students to rest and nap while listening to soothing music in relaxing lighting. See more at <http://ccsu.nmsu.edu/snooze/>

Open House Halloween Extravaganza

Facilities Operations, NMSU Fire and Police Departments, Housing and Residential Life, Sodexo, and the Dean of Students are planning an “Open House Halloween Extravaganza” at the Fire Station on October 28th from 6pm – 9pm. El Paso Electric will be presenting electrical safety to the children that reside in family housing, and the Fire Department will showcase the Doña Ana County Fire Safety trailer. The event will include fun activities for all the youth in our campus community.

Sunday Brunch

Sodexo is now offering a weekly Sunday Brunch in the Taos Restaurant from 10am to 2pm for the NMSU and Las Cruces communities. <https://insider.nmsu.edu/decadent-and-affordable-sunday-brunch/>

Parking Made Easier

The Parking office is pleased to announce that the parking meters now accept credit cards and coin.

Pink Week

Corbett Center is decorated in pink to help support breast cancer awareness this month!

Aggie Experience

Corbett Center took part in the Aggie Experience on Saturday, Oct. 8th. The future Aggies played the Giant Connect 4 game, took pictures at the Pistol Pete cut-out and received information on Corbett Center.

Sodexo Campus Dining

On Oct. 11 Flavours catered the Men's Basketball 6th Man Reception and Dinner. This elegant meal featured endive stuffed with herbed boursin cheese topped with crushed pecans, chicken curry tarts, Canadian beer flat iron steaks, sweet potato dauphinoise and maple pecan pie decorated with a marzipan maple leaf.

The Wednesday's student engagement event in Taos was Cityscapes: Charleston. Lunch featured pineapple bourbon pit ham, collard greens, mac and cheese, loaded sweet potatoes with marshmallows, brown sugar and butter, popcorn shrimp, grits with bacon and cheese, and Southern banana pudding.

The All-American Buffet on Thursday at The 3rd Floor Bistro featured Texas-style brisket, Buffalo chicken, savory red beans, corn on the cob, fresh market salad, rolls with butter and apple and cherry pies.
