Section 4: Certification/Signature

This Salary Reduction Agreement (SRA) is a legally binding contract. I understand that this SRA will remain in effect during my continued employment unless I submit a new SRA, with my signature, authorizing termination or change to this agreement. Any written termination or new SRA will be effective only with respect to amounts earned on and after the first day of the next pay period following receipt by New Mexico State University Benefit Services Department. New Mexico State University reserves the right to stop, or suspend, salary reductions on behalf of the Participant at any time, when it has reason to believe the maximum allowable contribution has been made.

It is further agreed and understood that New Mexico State University shall not be obligated to pay any amount to said company in excess of amount then due from the New Mexico State University to the employee.

It is also further agreed and understood that New Mexico State University shall not be responsible or liable for any taxes and/or penalties which may be levied against the employee if the stated amount of salary reduction exceeds the maximum allowable contribution, according to IRS rules. I also affirm that I am not currently receiving a distribution from another 457(b) or have stopped all distributions from other 457(b) accounts.

I agree to be bound by NMSU policies regarding this benefit program and any other policy that may be adopted by the New Mexico State University Board of Regents with regards to this type of program.

NMSU will use its best efforts to automatically cap all 457(b) salary reductions at the annual maximum established by the IRS unless otherwise noted for catch up purposes in the box below. If participants are eligible for 3 year "catch up" amounts, supporting documentation from the Vendor must be attached.
